

A fresh START

This week, Nelson buries his fiancée, Kerry (Jaime Mears), who was brutally murdered on the eve of their wedding.

Paul Tassone, who plays Nelson, says he hopes his alter ego can now slowly begin to rebuild his life.

"I have a lot of sympathy for Nelson," Paul says. "He is literally trying to make the best out of life and do the right thing – to be a good man and get beyond his demons. For this to have happened, which was something out of his control, was absolutely devastating."

Meanwhile, Jack (Wil Traval) is faced with an extremely unusual case. He finds himself dealing with a delusional patient who believes Jack is an alien!

"We get a very different look at the All Saints world through this guy's eyes," Wil says.

And why is Deanna (Sibylla Budd) so intent on impressing Frank (John Howard)?
