

AUSSIE

ALL SAINTS

Tuesday, 9.30pm, Seven/Prime

Nelson (Paul Tassone) seems to be having second thoughts about getting in touch with the daughter he's never really known. What will happen when he goes through with the reunion?

Meanwhile, everyone in the emergency department is on edge when two bikies from rival gangs are brought in. It's up to Frank (John Howard) and Dan (Mark Priestley) to try to keep the gangs separated. And don't miss a huge confrontation between Cate (Alex Davies) and Charlotte (Tammy MacIntosh).

Nelson hasn't been around for daughter Kahlia (Shara Streater-Mason) – is he planning on being there now?

Facing facts

Mysterious happenings are taking place in The Alice. Helen (Caitlin McDougall) is sure her late husband, Connor, has come back to haunt her, while Jess (Jessica Napier), desperate to reconnect with her late mother, starts to wonder whether she's actually doing just that.

Meanwhile, Toby (Brett Stiller) and Matt (Patrick Brammall) take steps to repair their friendship, following Matt's affair with Toby's mother, Ellie (Roxane Wilson).

"Poor Toby," laughs Roxane. "He's had to deal with the fact that his mum is a woman as well as a mother. That's hard."

"By the time Ellie's affair came out into the open, Ellie had decided to change the way she approaches situations. She challenges her son and says, 'You're going to have to accept that the relationship is on.'"

Is Helen's late husband talking to her from the grave?
